Are you aware of any organization or church that is selling used church pews? Desired length 12 feet. If so, please speak to Thomas (Tom) McGraw.tel: (804) 932-8098

Those of us attending Sunday Liturgy are aware that we are having a limited hospitality with social distancing. For the past several weeks we have had four ladies volunteering as hostesses. Now that we have the system organized, we feel that two ladies can adequately handle hospitality each week.

We are now asking for additional volunteers to take part so that the same ladies are not working each week or even every other week. Please think seriously about helping out. Everyone seems to be happy that we have reinstated hospitality and it would be nice if everyone who participates would also volunteer to help.

Please contact Chris Noonan (cdfnoona@gmail.com) to be added to the roster.

Thank you! Ann Kelly for Chris Noonan

“Lord, teach us to pray” Luke 11:1

True Praying involves knowing beforehand what to request from God. Praying is asking for something definite. The mind is given over entirely to God, thinking of him, of what is needed, and of what has been received in the past.

The very first step in prayer is a mental step. We must be taught through our intellect. And only as far as the intellect is given over to God in prayer will be able to learn how to pray.

Lord Jesus, just like Your disciples long ago I ask of You today, “teach me (us) to pray.” Amen.

Anyone who is interested in learning the liturgical music on their own could take online courses through the Metropolitan Cantor Institute. The Free courses can be found on their website: <https://mci.archpitt.org/online/>

Bishop's 2020 Appeal

By now, everyone should have received a letter from Bishop Kurt outlining all the good things that our Eparchy of Passaic does. To do these good things, obviously takes money. Please be generous to the Bishop's Appeal this year. I am asking everyone to consider a pledge of at least a dollar a week, $52, which you could spread over a couple of months. If you can pledge two, three, even five dollars a week, $260, that would be wonderful. If God has blessed you richly, please consider a larger pledge even ten dollars a week, $520. In any event, please pledge something. I am asking everyone to pledge and contribute to The Bishop's Appeal this year. The goal is 100% participation. Thank you for your consideration. Father Alex

Parishioner to Parishioners

To be a Saint – A matter of habit.

We often consider habits in a negative sense. He has a bad habit of smoking, or she is drinking too much. To be sure there are many bad habits we tend to pick up in life, swearing, anger; jealousy is a big one. We seem to slip into them like a hand in a glove. So easily in fact that they seem comfortable to us. Like an old friend there to support us.

Habits work the other way too. With a little effort we can form good habits just as well as bad. Generosity, joy, thankfulness, meekness; all of these traits can be learned and practiced so that they become habits also. Good habits that define who we are just as readily as those bad habits.

In establishing good habits, we are better able to do battle with temptation. Habits are developed with practice, and are guided by self-control, prayer, and the Sacraments. They must be done with God's help. Even though we form a habit through our free will, it is God's grace that will help us form these habits.

Practicing the four Cardinal Virtues is always a good place to start. The Cardinal Virtues are the four principle virtues upon which Christian morality rests. First taught by Plato they have been since adopted by the Catholic Church. They consist of Prudence, Justice, Temperance and Fortitude. We will discuss two of them below.

Temperance - In our modern society, temperance is a virtue that is fading fast. The vices/sins of gluttony and lust are on full display from unrestricted sex to binge drinking to obesity. Temperance is essential for taming these temptations and strengthening us on the journey to holiness. As with the other cardinal virtues, temperance can only be learned by habit. Food, drink, are gifts from God that are meant to be enjoyed. Problems arise when we use them in an excessive manner. Temperance helps us to keep a proper balance and ordering to God of the goods He has given us.

Fortitude – This is the virtue which helps us to overcome obstacles in daily life and persecution in the spiritual life. It is the virtue most needed when others do evil against us, even inside of the Church. In order to persevere in moments of persecution or fear, fortitude needs to be firmly established within the individual. Fortitude helps the individual to restrain and control fear.

Establishing good habits that become second nature to us are essential to living a Saintly life. Remember though that to master good habits you have to practice them, all the while praying for God's grace.

Yours in Christ
Brother Joseph
